4. ABOUT THE ADMISSION PROCESS

4.1. The admission process for the master's candidates will consist in two partial grades: standardized grade of EUF (N1) and curriculum vitae rating (N2).

4.2. The final grade (NF – nota final) will be done by the expression: $NF = N1 + N2$.

4.3. The normalized grade of EUF (N1) will be calculated by formula:

$N1 = [(Grade\ EUF \times 5.0) / (Average\ do\ EUF)]$, where the “Average of EUF” refer to the average grade of EUF in the edition toked by the candidate. The grade N1 will be calculated until the second decimal place.

4.4. A candidate who has N1 lower than 1.5 (one comma five) will be disqualified.

4.5. The grade N2 consists analyzing the curriculum vitae of the candidate. The curriculum vitae has to be send with documents and the proof copies of the bibliographical production inserted, which will be analyzed by the Admission Process Committee according to the following criteria:

- a) Paper accepted at indexed journal: maximum of 1 (one) point per paper. It's necessary to furnish a copy of the first page's paper;
- b) Academic Works complete at annuals conference: maximum of 0.5 (zero comma five) points per work. It's necessary to present the proof of submission and copy of the work;
- c) Paper submitted to publication at indexed journal: maximum of 0.5 (zero comma five) points per work. It's necessary to present proof of submission and copy of the work;
- d) Oral presentation of work in conferences: maximum of 0.3 (zero comma three) points per presentation. It's necessary present the certificate of work presentation;
- e) Other items: maximum of 1 (one) point to the sum of all items, including scientific initiation.

4.6. The maximum total punctuation of the grade N2 will be 2 (two) points.

4.7. Greater importance will be given to publications in which the candidate is the main author and for the publications linked to their research area.

5. RESULTS RELEASE

5.1. The result of the admission process will be noticed by the Internet, at the address: ppgfsc.posgrad.ufsc.br and at the notice board of PPGFSC/UFSC according to the stipulated date at the item n 2 of this notice.
